

Ethics- Questioning Capacity:

How do you determine if an individual is capable of making decisions?

Presenter: Jesse Footlik, Peck Ritchey, LLC

Jesse Footlik is an associate attorney with Peck Ritchey, LLC. In addition to representing individuals and families as heirs and beneficiaries, Jesse represents both corporate and individual fiduciaries, including financial institutions and healthcare providers. Jesse has successfully litigated cases on both the trial and appellate court levels. He also has significant experience guiding clients through the probate process on decedent's estates as well as the estates of disabled adults and minors. Jesse was named an Illinois Super Lawyers Rising Star for 2015-2016, nominated by his peers as one of the best attorneys in Illinois, an honor which is bestowed on up to only 2.5% of the attorneys in Illinois annually.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Learn how to determine mental capacity and review the laws in place to protect people with capacity issues.

Objectives:

- Discuss medical versus legal determination of capacity
- Illustrate who makes the decisions when it comes to a client who may or may not have decisional capacity
- Outline the ethical issues can arise in various stages of decision making for clients with diminished capacity
- Review of the Health care surrogate act, Powers of attorney and Guardianship

Sponsored By: BrightStar Care® of Chicago and La Grange, Peck Ritchey LLC, Assure Home Healthcare, Inc., The Glen Healthcare Network

Join us at this complimentary CEU event!

This continuing education is for qualified social workers and nurses who will earn 1 credit hour.

Date: Thursday, April 28th , 2016

Time: 5:15 pm – Check-in & Refreshments; 6:00pm – Presentation

Location: Ronald McDonald House, 211 E. Grand Ave., Chicago

Ronald McDonald House will validate parking for $10-you must park at the Intercontinental Hotel located at 505 N. Michigan Avenue

RSVP required by April 25 to:

Linda Kunicki– linda.kunicki@brightstarcare.com

